

Higher Learning Institutions

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Higher Learning Degrees

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Higher Learning Programs

- _____
Are typically regulated by _____ agencies and are required by law for some careers.
- _____
Are awarded by a _____ college or community college
Require ____ - ____ credit hours (approx. 20 courses)
Typically take _____ years of full-time study to complete
- _____
Require ____ - ____ credit hours (approx. 40 courses)
Typically take _____ years of full-time study to complete
- _____
Include: _____ & _____
- _____
Require ____ to ____ credit hours after a bachelor's degree is earned
May also require a written _____ or _____
Typically take _____ to _____ years of full-time study to complete
Must have a _____ degree to obtain this degree
- _____
Are also known as _____

Require _____ to _____ credit hours after a _____ degree is earned OR in place of a _____ degree.

Also require a written thesis or _____

Typically take _____ - _____ years of full-time study to complete

Must have a _____ degree.

- _____
Graduate degrees which focus on _____ and practical analysis over _____ or research.
Includes: _____

Higher Learning in Georgia

- There are _____ colleges, universities, technical & vocational schools in the state of Georgia.
- Universities have multiple campuses to study at because of:

Public vs. Private Institutions

Public	Private
Generally less expensive
	Tend to be smaller
	Often offer smaller range of majors
Larger class sizes common

Factors to Consider

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Admission Requirements

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____